Treatment of the period of training of Govt School masters in the Normal College as Service Counting for Periodical increments.

From The Director of Public Instruction

No 1506/102 Dated 14/8/11 Received 16/8/11

Diary No 1074 | Enc | Spare Copies | Serial No 1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Recommends under the circumstances stated that Govt. No 4962-3/Edn-229-10-2 dt 6/11 may be reconsidered and that the period of training of H. Seetharamaiya of the Chamarajanagar High School, in the Teachers College, Saidapet, may be ordered to be treated as Service counting for his Periodical increments.

NOTES AND ORDERS

Noted for orders with References

2 H. Seetharamaiya was getting Rs 42 in the Grade 30-4/2-50 at the time he was given an LT Scholarship for undergoing training in the Teachers' College, Saidapet. Had he not gone to Madras for training, he would have got Rs 46 in that Grade from 1st Sept 1909. He represents that if he is not given the increment from 1-9-1909 he would be superseded by others who were below him in the Grade. Mr. Dyl states that Seethavamaiya's Request deserves favorable Consideration

2 H. Seethavamaiya however has since been given the maximum pay of Rs 50 in class D I [30-½-50] and appointed Asst Master of the Maharajah's College. Thus by going through the L T. Course he got Rs 50 at once and went over certain teachers above him in the Grades. Therefore the question of Supersession Complained of does not exist now.

Point has not to be seen and ask whether the Official has any remarks

In the matter
6 Noted for orders The L T Course lasted only for about 1 year 12 months. Therefore Seetharamayya would lose only two increments at Rs 4 pm for this period Viz Rs 56 It is not clear how he would lose his increments for 2 years as stated in the Govt's letter. If Seetharamayya has got the L T Degree & he has lost Rs 56 in undergoing the Course

7 In their Order of 1611, the Govt declined to grant the concession of counting the time spent in undergoing the L T Course for earning increments. In accordance with that order, the recommendation of the D G is not capable of compliance

8 So far as the present case is concerned, Seetharamiah loses a certain amount of pay only, by virtue of the order refd to, but does not suffer in rank as he was able to secure a promotion, he can advance increments to Rs 80/- just at the time when he would have risen to that pay, if he had earned his increments as they fell due If however it had not been possible to provd him with the appt on the higher pay, the operation of the post order refd to would have affected his seniority, and those who had simply remained at their posts would have gone above him in spite of the fact that he has of his having obtained better qualifications in the meanwhile In this manner it is possible that the L D may work somewhat hardly on those who are sent to the L T Course, and it is matter for consideration whether in view of this, and the question of granting the concession recommended by the I G and discussed in file 227-G/11 may not be taken up for reconsideration

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No 9962-3/Edn 227-10-2 of the 1st June 1911 observing that the privilege of counting the period of training undergone in the L T College by H Seetharamaiya, Assistant Master of the Channapatna High School towards service qualifying for increment is a further corcession, and that this is considered to be unnecessary, I have the honour to inform you that the teacher has submitted a petition representing that during the period of his training his stipend and the portion of pay granted to him were together less than his substantive pay of Rs 42/- and that he had to make a monthly remittance out of the reduced amount for the maintenance of his family at home He also states that in spite of his difficulties he passed through the L T Course with a hope that he will be given a place at least not lower in rank than that held by other teachers in the list of progressive appointments of his grade who have not undergone training The teacher's request for permission to count the period of training towards qualifying service for increment is deserving of favourable consideration, as else he will be behind his equals in the gradation list who have not qualified themselves for the L T as he points out Under these circumstances, I request that Government may be pleased to reconsider their order cited above with a view to Seetharamaiya's increment
